

Christine McMorrow Buckley

February 1, 2019

Christine McMorrow Buckley (Powers), 66, of Riverside, RI, passed away unexpectedly, February 1, 2019 surrounded by her loving family. She was born January 28, 1953 in Alexandria, Virginia to the late Robert Powers and Rosemary (Davis) Powers. She was preceded in death by sisters Meegan Johnston and Cathy Powers.

Christine leaves behind her devoted husband, James Buckley and loving daughters Lisa Doescher, her fiancé Herbert Duclaw and Jessica Buckley, as well as her cherished son, James A. Buckley and his wife, Jackie Degraf. Her true joy was her grandchildren, Bryce Doescher, Jonathan Lanni and Jezeryne Alexander. Being “Nana” was her favorite activity.

Christine loved people and always had time to offer an ear or a shoulder. She was quick to laugh, an eternal optimist, a notorious story teller and was unintentionally hilarious. She was passionate about life and living in the moment. There truly aren't enough words to do justice to how incredible she was. Christine will be missed by everyone that had the honor of knowing her.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday February 9th at 2:00 p.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate.

Her final resting place will be at Arlington National Cemetery.

Rest well, Gertie, we love you.

“ Chris, as we all called her, was the epitome of positivity and had a heart of gold. When I moved into the little cottage on Washington Ave, I was told the neighbors were all pretty nice and will look out for you if you stay on their good side. Well, that was an understatement. It was the first time I felt truly home thanks to Chris and the amazing people in our close knit neighborhood.

Chris and I had many visits together in my home and on our front porches chatting about our pets, her grandchildren, hers and Debbys gardens, and life.

Chris always be close to my heart. I am richer because of her friendship. I am so sorry for not having been able said goodbye for now.

Fly free my friend

All my love,

Stephanie (and Nellie too)

“ Chris was in the fabric of our everyday lives. From the friendly good morning as me and Stella were walking to the bus stop to the inevitable chewing out if you drove down the street too fast. We knew when it was time to feed her kitty because when she started yelling "BOYDIE...HERE KITTY KITTY KITTY", it would set the wheels in motion of all my dogs barking.

Its so quiet now..

We bought this house because of Chris.

The day we came to look at it she sat on the porch and pitched to us why we should live here...and she was right.

I'm going to miss gardening and swapping seeds.I'm going to miss catching her snooping around in the yard to see what new flowers are blooming.

Summer was when we would spend the most time together.

She would invite Stella to play on her porch and lay out a blanket and put "treasures" on it, she always loved her time with little kids.

She loved food

She loved laughing

She loved life

She loved Kids,Cats,Dogs and Birds equally

Her compassion knew no bounds.

Good neighbors are hard to come by

Great neighbors even harder

We will miss you every day, every morning glory that opens this summer will be for you my friend.

RIP

Love, Debby
