

David F. Duhaime

December 3, 2020

David F. Duhaime, 70, longtime resident of North Scituate, most recently residing in North Providence, passed away on December 3, 2020 after a brief (non-Covid) illness. He was the oldest son of Joseph Francis and Irene (Olivier) Duhaime. David is survived by his six siblings: Paul Duhaime of Coventry, RI; Denis Duhaime of Niceville, FL; James Duhaime of Burnt Hills, NY; Elaine Duhaime of Sprague, CT; Diane Duhaime-Lang of West Nyack, NY; and Michael Duhaime of Smithfield, RI. In addition to his brothers and sisters David had eleven nieces and nephews, and seven great-nieces and nephews, and many loving cousins.

David graduated from Scituate Jr.-Sr. High School in 1968 with High Honors and was an Eagle Scout. He worked for over 30 years at Fatima Hospital in North Providence. During retirement David enjoyed the Red Sox, the Patriots and bowling, and was a dedicated volunteer at the Saint Vincent de Paul food pantry in Greenville, RI. He was also an active, life-long parishioner at St. Joseph Church, North Scituate.

Our oldest brother was all about family. After caring for our parents in their later years, he kept close touch with relatives near and far and never missed a family gathering. David's gentle and caring soul will be missed by so many.

A Funeral Mass for David will be held on his birthday, May 18, 2021, 10:00 a.m., at St. Joseph Church in North Scituate.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Saint Vincent de Paul food pantry through svdpri.org, or St. Vincent de Paul, 622 Putnam Pike, Greenville, RI 02828

“ David was a good friend of mine all through Junior and Senior High School. We spend a lot of time together in Boy Scouts and the Explorer program. Over the years I will occasionally meet at High School Reunions and St Joesph church. He was a kind hearted individual and a sincere friend, he will be missed. My condolences to his family, Dave Marcello.
