

Alan D. Schultz

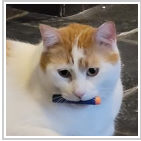

November 1, 2021

Alan D. Schultz, 66, beloved father and grandfather passed away on November 1, 2021. He was born and raised in Worcester, MA and lived in Burrillville, RI for the past several years. Alan was preceded in death by his father, Edward Schultz, his mother Mildred Schultz, and sister Diane Hogan. He is survived by his son Alan Schultz and wife Sarah of Burrillville, RI; his daughter Kate Vincent and husband Scott of Burrillville, RI, his former wife Kathy Vessello of Auburn, MA, and his sister Holly Schultz of Athol, MA. He was the cherished grandfather of Leah (10) and Nathan (9) Vincent.

Alan loved singing with the Salisbury Singers and at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Worcester, going fishing and boating, observing wildlife, and spending time with his family. Over the years he worked in pipe fitting, tool sales and demonstration where he enjoyed teaching people skills of the various trades that he knew, and spiritual counseling through meditation where he helped people improve their lives. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Funeral services are respectfully private.

Tribute Wall

“ 3 files added to the album Dad/Grampa

Kate Vincent - November 12, 2021 at 11:35 AM

DV

“ Diane Vincent lit a candle in memory of Alan D. Schultz

Diane Vincent - November 12, 2021 at 08:40 AM