“ I was just informed of Andrew's passing by one of his PMS classmates and to say I am heartbroken is an understatement. I was Andrew's nurse at PMS and remember him with fondness. He was the cutest young man and would come in to my office with such a convincing face and story you never doubted him. Always pleasant, happy and very polite.

May memories of Andrew bring smiles to the faces of those who knew and loved him and I am sure he will brighten the heavens above.

To his parents, siblings and family members, I offer my heartfelt condolences and prayers.

Diane, I am truly sorry.

“ Our saddened hearts and prayers go out to everyone in Andrew’s family and his loyal numerous friends. He was such a bright light with a sense of humor unmatched by others. When the boys all descended upon our household - he was always quick with a conversation sprinkled with his genuine politeness and sincerity. To say we simply liked “Luce” is putting it mildly. We thoroughly adored him. May he remain forever in our memories. Wherever you are Andrew, we know you’re spreading your abundant light and love of laughter. The Ferzoco Family.
