

Ann M. Leclerc

August 17, 2017

Ann M. Leclerc (Punny to her family and close friends), 70, of N. Scituate passed away August 17, 2017. Ann was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island. She was born in Providence and grew up in Foster, graduating from Ponaganset High School in 1964. After marrying her husband, Charles, in 1967 the couple moved to N. Scituate where they stayed and raised their two children. Ann worked as a Realtor, serving the Rhode Island community for more than 20 years. She was an active member of the Scituate Scholarship organization in town and for many years could be found volunteering her Columbus Day weekends in the Rotary Club booth at the Scituate Art Festival. Ann loved a good mystery novel and watching the Red Sox play ball, but her most cherished times were those spent with her family and friends, especially her four grandchildren. She is survived by her loving husband of 50 years, Charles Leclerc, her two children, Garth Leclerc and Rachel Madonna, and her beloved grandchildren, Cole, Tyrus, Liana and Kyle. Visitation will be held Wednesday, August 23rd from 10 a.m. -12 p.m. with a Remembrance and Blessing immediately following at Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Rd., North Scituate. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Lupus Foundation of America or the National Kidney Foundation
