

Ann Marie Semper

May 24, 2022

Ann Marie Semper, 71, of Johnston passed away peacefully on May 24, 2022. Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Antonio and Josephine (Tyburski) DeFazio. She was the beloved partner of the late Alan Larsh.

Ann Marie worked as a manager at Twin River Casino until her retirement. She is survived by her son Anthony Larsh. She was the sister of Anthony DeFazio of New York City, Joseph DeFazio of Kissimmee, Florida, and Mary Jane Gesmondi of East Greenwich, Rhode Island. She is also survived by two loving nieces Tanya Gesmondi and Melissa Moura and a great niece, Micaela and great nephew, Jonathan.

In her spare time, Ann Marie had a variety of interests. When the weather was hot, Ann Marie enjoyed going to the beach, especially Scarborough Beach. She was a passionate follower of the Red Sox and the Patriots and could often be seen on the seat of her chair in front of the television cheering on her team. She also had a love for casinos. When at home, she enjoyed watching game shows and soap operas. People soon learned not to call her when one of her favorite shows was on. Ann Marie was also an excellent cook and lover of good food. One of her special dishes was lasagna which often graced her holiday tables. She also had a green thumb and never lost her love for watching things grow. Well into her later years she was still planting in greenhouses.

Perhaps nothing pleased her more than the birth of her son Anthony on whom she doted. She worked to bring out the best in him as she did with her family and her friends. She was a woman of strong passions and enduring friendships. She will be missed.

Visitation will be held Tuesday, May 31, 2022, from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. with a Service at 5:00 p.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Ann Marie's memory may be made to the HopeHealth Hilitar Hospice Center, 1085 North Main Street, Providence, RI, 02904.

“ My deepest & most sincere sympathy to the family & friends of Ann Marie. I have very fond memories from years past of her visits to the home of her brother Joe & myself. One very special visit was when she visited us in San Juan, PR. Ann Marie was always fun to be around & I'm sure she will be sadly missed by many.

“ Sending my deepest condolences to the Gesmondi/Larsh families. Ann Marie was smart, funny and spoke her mind. I was blessed to have her as my Godmother. Having her in my corner made my world brighter. She was supportive, loyal, and caring. She celebrated my accomplishments and supported me through difficult times. She had a heart of gold and I will treasure every memory I have of her, forever and always. She will be greatly missed.

“ Ann Marie was a strong woman who I admired and will continue to admire. She, in a sense, reminds me of myself. She has been through so much and kept pushing forward no matter how difficult. Her sense of humor never faded. She lived life on her terms and never lived it to please others. She will be greatly missed.

“ My deepest condolences to family members and friends of Ann Marie. She loved being with them and I always remember the many laughs we had . When we were young and growing up together, I used to love to see what she would be wearing and how her hair and makeup would be done so beautifully when she was going on a date for the evening. I wished I could look like her when I got a little older too! She was beautiful inside and out.
