“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

“ I first met Anne in 1979, along with her daughter Gina. All three of us enjoyed a lot of laughs over the years. Anne was a very kind and loving person. The type that would give you the shirt off her back. She had a tremendous love for animals and would make a trip to the market to buy peanuts just to feed the squirrels in her yard. Gina and her granddaughter Jess were the loves of her life. We were all blessed to have had her until now. I'll miss you my friend. XO
