“ Barbara and I had become almost sisters. She was one of the best friends I have ever had. She would always say what was on her mind no matter what others may think. I loved her for her honesty and no sugar coating ways. God blessed me when she moved into our complex. She bwcamw my Little man Jack's auntie BABA. He loved her and she him so much. To her family I offer my sincere sympathy. I will miss her so much.
