

Barbara Huntington Patenaude

September 18, 2016

Barbara Huntington Patenaude passed away on September 18, 2016. She was the wife of the late Arthur C. Patenaude. Daughter of the late Stuart and Sarah {Cook} Huntington and sister to the late Marjorie Eberts. She is survived by two daughters, Candace and her husband Robert Yates and Cynthia and her husband David Vanaudenhove, and a son Arthur C. Patenaude Jr., two grandchildren, Jennifer George and Robb Yates. She also leaves behind 6 nieces and nephews and their families. Barbara grew up in Pawtucket, RI and raised her family in Lincoln and Slatersville, RI. In her later years she lived in Narragansett, RI. Pompano Beach, Fla and Harrisville, RI. She has several kindergarten friends whose friendship have lasted her lifetime. She passed on her love of animals to her children and grandchildren. Barbara enjoyed entertaining friends and family, gardening, reading, creating many forms of art work. There will be a Memorial Service at Swan Point Cemetery on September 26th at 11:30 am. A collation and visiting with the family will follow the service at 273 Ronald Ave. Cumberland, RI.