

Betty A. Degnan

April 15, 2020

Betty A. Degnan, 82 passed away on Wednesday, April 15, 2020, at home surrounded by her loved ones.

She was born on April 4, 1938 to the late Paul Hong and Mary Sabourin, the wife of her late husband Walter J. Degnan and a kidney donor to her late son Paul W. Degnan.

She was a CNA for more than 25 years at Summit Medical Center before retiring in 1998. She is survived by her Daughter Linda A. Gomes, North Kingstown, twin sister Barbara LaRose, Pawtucket, Brother Paul Hong , his wife Terry, Florida, Grandmother to Chloe E. Gomes, Mansfield, Heather Marshall, Smithfield, Travis Degnan, Johnston, and Kealy Quinn, North Providence, and many nieces and nephews,

The service will be private with a celebration of her life to be held at a later date.

In Honor of Betty A. Degnan, donations may be given to Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer or National Kidney Foundation, Condolences may be offered to the family at www.winfieldandsons.com

Tribute Wall

MI

“ My memories of you will always include me calling you "Mom", sitting at your dining room table talking and laughing... you were always kind, loving, and supportive. Your genuine, authentic, fun loving personality made you an instant friend to all you met. I will think fondly of you for the rest of my life. God Bless you! Love to Linda and Chloe XOXO

Michele - April 21, 2020 at 02:03 PM

DG

So sorry for your loss, Linda and Chloe

Donna Gay - April 21, 2020 at 07:08 PM

DH

“ Auntie Betty was not only my Aunt but also my Godmother. Although we rarely saw each other, when we did there was always lots of love! She was always happy and full of life. Her smile could brighten anyones day! She will always be loved and missed!!!

Dawn-Marie Hong - April 21, 2020 at 12:12 PM