

Betty Jane Ferrante

September 30, 2020

Ferrante, Betty Jane, 84, of Johnston, passed away peacefully at home on September 30, 2020. She was the wife of the late Vincent J. Ferrante. Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Nehemiah and Irene (Studley) Knight. She grew up in Scituate and graduated from Hope High School. Betty is survived by her son Vincent Ferrante and his wife Courtney of Avon Park, Florida, her daughter Vivian McMurray and her husband Andy of Coventry and her son Michael Ferrante and his wife Suzanne of Johnston. She was the grandmother of Joshua and Nehemiah Ferrante, Timothy, Justin and Andrew McDaniel and Michael Ferrante, Jr. Betty is also predeceased by several siblings. Her funeral and burial will be private.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ Such fond memories of my Aunt Betty. She was so much fun and never a dull moment. I remember baby sitting the kids, my cousins, one New Years eve in the 1960's. My Aunt & Uncle Vinny came home just in time as baby Michael wouldn't stop crying!! She got him to sleep like magic!! Only to wake him by yelling at Uncle Vinny!!! Lol!! She was "one of a kind" and we all loved her!!! I can't believe I went to her home September 29th, the day before she passed, because I had a sudden feeling that I should visit her...now I know why. Rest in Peace my favorite Aunt on the Knight side of the family. Wish I could have paid my respect one last time. Sincere condolences to my cousins and family. Peace and Love, Kathleen Knight Bianchi

Kathleen Knight Bianchi - October 07, 2020 at 11:47 AM

MA

“ Marie Acciardo lit a candle in memory of Betty Jane Ferrante

Marie Acciardo - October 05, 2020 at 01:26 PM