“ My dear Aunt Bev was a best friend to my mother for many years. After my mothers passing, Aunty sent me a birthday card every single year for at least 10 years wishing me a happy birthday and telling me that my mother loved me and that she did too. I had an opportunity to visit with her this fall and her love of her children and grandchildren and her love of life was evident although she missed her husband, Joe. Now she is with him and in the arms of the angels. Rest in peace Aunty - Your loving niece, Barbara

To Beverly Conlon's Family, we are deeply sorry about your loss. We used to have so much fun playing bingo with Bev at The Bridge at Cherry Hill. She was such a nice lady, always pleasant. We will miss you Bev. With sympathy and prayers, Rosetta and mom Adele
