“ Carol was a good friend to my late mother, Jane Petrarca, who lived down the hallway from her. She always had a smile and a kind word whenever we saw her. She was a sweet and thoughtful lady. She always spoke of her family. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that she now has eternal life in God's kingdom of heaven and one day you will be reunited with her. With deepest sympathy.

“ Carol was a very dear friend so thoughtful and kind . She was my next door neighbor ' I loved her visits. On St. Patricks day she would always bring her Irish bread . Another day it would be bran muffins. I loved just talking with her and sharing conversation when she'd come next door for a visit . I will miss Carol so very much. My thoughts and sympathy are with her children and grandchildren. Fondly, Nora Gervais
