

Carol Birmingham

December 23, 2024

Carol (DiStefano) Birmingham, 73, of Johnston, passed away peacefully on December 23, 2024.

Born in Providence, she was the cherished daughter of the late Anthony and Virginia (Boyajian) DiStefano.

Carol is survived by her sons, James Ferraza (Meghan) and Dale Birmingham (Adrienne) and her beloved grandchildren Haley and Cole Birmingham, Elaina Ferraza and Arianna Castriotta. She also leaves behind her loving sibling Jean Ardente, her niece and cherished goddaughter Gina Ardente and her great-nephew Joshua Ardente; along with her sister Lori Guglielmetti and two nieces Danelle and Lauren.

She was preceded in death by her sister Marie DiStefano and beautiful great-nephew Joseph Ardente.

Carol will be remembered for her beautiful smile and infectious laugh, leaving a lasting legacy of love and devotion to her family.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday, January 25th at 10:00 a.m. in Holy Cross Church, 118 King Phillip Street, Providence. Burial will be held privately at the request of the family.

“ Carol and I met at the Officers Club in Quonset some 54 years ago as her group of friends and mine merged to have a fun and eventful night. (Of course, we all had fake ID's) lol And, Carol loved to dance as she could light up a room just by both her presence and million-dollar smile. Too many memories which could be a book if I typed them all here and I have videos too. My daughter Kerri adored her Godmother always and Carol never missed a birthday, or Christmas to visit her. Carol loved her family above all as she was the happiest being in their company. I pray now that your spirit is free and dancing once again with your Mom and your sister Marie and Auntie Anna and of course your nephew Joe who greeted you upon your return. Until we meet again my friend, fly high and remember how much we all love you. Always, Pat
