

Carol A. Riegenbach

August 3, 2024

Carol A. Riegenbach, 74, of Greenville, RI, passed away peacefully at home, with friends by her side on August 3, 2024.

Carol grew up in Chepachet and moved to Boston for college and her subsequent career. After working for a preeminent criminal defense attorney for several colorful years, Carol took a position as a Judicial Secretary for Justice Gould of the Massachusetts Trial Court. Upon retiring from the Massachusetts Judiciary, Carol and her husband, John McKenzie, returned to Harmony.

Carol and John were never too far away from their friends in Massachusetts, visiting often, and they vacationed for many years on Cape Cod. Unfortunately, John passed unexpectedly in an auto accident in 2020.

Carol was the past President of Gentian Garden Club; she loved needlepoint and was an avid reader, particularly of history. Carol loved watching birds and loved her furry friends, including many dogs and cats, especially her last three cats, Ellie, Harriet, and Jesse James.

Visitation will be held Tuesday, August 13th from 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. with a Funeral Service at 10:00 a.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate, RI, Burial will follow in Acotes Cemetery,

Chepachet, RI.

Donations can be made in Carol's honor to the Humane Society of the United States, 2100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037 or the SPCA of Rhode Island.

“ Carol lived across the hall from my mom at the Village at Waterman Lake. I got to know Carol as I would see her when I visited my mom, and also helped her by trimming her cat Jessie James' toenails for her. I really enjoyed Carol, and was glad to get to know her, if only for a relatively short time.. I was very sorry to hear that she had passed away. Sharon Doolittle
