

Christopher Guilmette

September 7, 2025

Christopher Guilmette, 47, of Chepachet, passed away unexpectedly on September 7, 2025.

Born in Providence, he was the beloved son of Karen R. (Stevens) Egerton and John Egerton. He was the husband of Dawn (Heath) Guilmette and the proud father of Tasha Heath-Cruz, Tyler Guilmette, Bradyn Guilmette and Aaron Guilmette and his loyal golden retriever, Ahsoka Tano along with many extended family members and dear friends. He is also survived by his brother Steven Guilmette and his wife Sara, his cherished niece Lily Guilmette. He was predeceased by his brother, the late Patrick Egerton.

Christopher honorably served his country in the United States Coast Guard, enlisting in 1996 and retiring as a Chief in 2016. He held a lifelong bond with his “Coasties” and found great fulfillment in mentoring and supporting those he served alongside, both during active duty and in civilian life.

Outside of his service, Chris was an avid outdoorsman who loved camping, hiking, skiing, and spending time on his lakefront property, often enjoying swims with his dog. A former Boy Scout, he passed on his love of the outdoors and teamwork by coaching youth softball in the local little league.

Born on Halloween, Chris carried a special fondness for the holiday and the joy it brought to others. Above all, he was a loving father who took immense pride in his children and their many accomplishments. His legacy of service and dedication will be remembered by all.

Visitation will be held, Friday, September 19th from 9-11:30 AM with a Funeral Home Service at 11:30 AM in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate. Burial with Military Honors will immediately follow in the Rhode Island Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Exeter, RI.

“ I too served with Chris on the Seneca. Many hours on duty and off spent together. His amazing sense of humor was infectious! And we were all privileged to have had the opportunity to live and work with him. And yes, the Staaaate Troopah... but don't forget the "unmahhked Cahhh" Rest in Peace Brother.

“ I Served with Chris on the mighty war ship Seneca in Boston. We lived together in the berthing area and stood many watches together. He loved his mother very much and often talked about her on those long nights on watch. I will never forget his strong accent as he always claimed that when he got out of the CG he wanted to be a "State Troopah". Rest in peace shipmate!

“ Rose- one of my best friends. I am so sorry about Chris. Ten years you waited for your someone and just like that, he is gone. I will never forget our Kahula nights with him dancing with his golf shirts buttoned to his chin. We got you Rose. Your friends, family and Coast Guard family.

“ Dear Rose,
I was so very saddened to hear of your partners death. The pictures you showed and lovely things you said about your relationship is testament to what a good character he had. May we all find a love like this. 🧡

“ Thinking of you during this difficult time Rose ❤️ I’m so glad you have the memories of the life you and Chris got to share together before it ended far too soon. Thinking of you and your sweet pup, we are here for you.

T - September 16, 2025 at 03:19 PM

“ Rose,

I can't begin to imagine the weight of the loss you're carrying right now. You shared not only a home, but a life, a love, and even the joy of a dog who brought so much light into your world together. That kind of bond doesn't end—it leaves an imprint on the heart forever.

As you navigate the pain, the silence, and the memories, I hope you can feel surrounded by love. You're not alone. Please take all the time you need to grieve, to remember, and to heal in your own way. I'm here if you need someone to sit with you, walk the dog, or simply listen. Sending you all my love and strength during this incredibly hard time.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
MS*
