

David Cole Bartlett, II

January 30, 2015

David Cole Bartlett, II, Dave, 46, died peacefully in his home surrounded by family on January 30, 2015, in Warwick, RI after a long courageous battle with brain cancer. He studied TV and Radio production at New England Institute of Technology, used his talents to work in various media venues, including recording audio books for the blind, and worked as a Senior Applications Support Analyst at Comcast Spotlight. Dave had a wonderful zest for life and has been an inspiration and roll model to his numerous friends, co-workers, and family. He inspired many through his writings and words, especially throughout his battle with cancer. His outlook on life was one of gratitude. Dave somehow was able to shine no matter the circumstances... he was always able to light up a room with his spirit. Dave was able to relate to people of all ages, and has touched many lives. His inspiration and inner strength will live on in all of our hearts forever. Dave was the beloved son of parents, David & Claire (Vaillancourt) Bartlett of Warwick, RI. He is also survived by his sister Bethany Bartlett of Fernandina Beach, FL, sister Melissa Barry and her husband Scott Barry of Billerica, MA, and sister Meredith Bahl of Vidor, TX. He is also survived by his nephew Kevin Kessel, niece Zoe Bahl and nephew Timmy Bahl, and his step-nieces Julia Barry, and Emily Barry, and step-nephew Brian Barry. Dave also leaves behind several Aunts, Uncles, cousins and very dear friends. Visitation will take place on Thursday, February 5, 2015 from 3:00 7:00 p.m. at Winfield & Son™s Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate, RI. Dave™s service will immediately follow beginning at 7:00 p.m, at Winfield & Son™s Funeral Home. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Dave™s life. Dave will be buried in a private ceremony on February 6, 2015.
