

David Allen Campopiano

February 3, 2014

Campopiano, David Allen, 58, of Johnston, went to heaven, February 3, 2014. He was the son of Hazel (Reedy) Campopiano and the late Remo N. Campopiano. Besides his mother he is survived by his brothers Steven (Remo) Campopiano of Minneapolis, MN and Michael F. Campopiano and his wife, Claudia of Bristol. He was the uncle of Adam Campopiano and his wife Stephanie of Johnston, Alyssa Williams and her children, Victoria Williams and Sean Williams of Lincoln and Sofie Campopiano of Austin, TX and his Aunt Shirley Hurd of Johnston. He was preceded in death by his long-time friend and buddy Alan Tucker of Chepachet. David was a really good guy who enjoyed restoring his 1978 Chevy El Camino. He was a talented carpenter who helped build Ramble Woods in Glocester with his father and brothers back in the early 70TMs. He was known to everyone at the Salvation Army ARC Facility in Providence as MacGuyver where he lived and thrived for several years. He loved to tinker with boats and remote controlled helicopters and he built windmills in the yard of his Scituate home where he lived with his beloved mom. He will be sorely missed. Funeral service Tuesday February 11th at 11AM in the Winfield & SonTMs Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Rd., Scituate. Burial will be in Highland Memorial Park Cemetery, Johnston. Calling hours Tuesday morning prior to the service 9-11AM.
