“ I was only in David's company a few times, once at a New Year's Eve dinner with music by Roomful of Blues and a few times playing Bingo at Foxwoods, but in that short time, I learned that he was such a kind man. Once he learned my grandson played football, he never failed to ask about him and how he was doing. You will be missed as you Rest In Peace. My condolences to Paula, Dave, Melissa, and the three grandchildren.

Living around he corner from me I met David years ago. Being both in construction every once in a while while on the same site we would run into each other at the roch coach {coffee trtck}. After retirement we would have a cup of coffee at my home or his and trade construction stories or take a ride to foxwoods and become BINGO QUEENS. Win or not we always had a good time. David truly loved his family and spoke of them verry often. He was kind cheerful and comforable to be with. Will miss coffee conversations , card games and my bingo partner
