July 2, 2023

David A. D'Agostino, 79, of Scituate, Rhode Island passed peacefully surrounded by family and friends following a brief illness.

David was the son of Albert and Antonetta (Passarelli) D'Agostino. He was the beloved brother of Brigadier General (Ret.) James D'Agostino and his wife, Frances, and the beloved brother of the late Pauline Montaquila and her late husband, beloved brother-in-law Ronald, and sister-in-law, Debra (Bouffard) Montaquila.

David is survived by his beloved Aunt Mildred "Millie" (Bertuglio) D'Agostino.

He was very involved in Freemasonry in both Rhode Island and Massachusetts. He was a Past Master of Overseas Lodge No. 40 in Cranston, RI and Past Master of Major General Henry Knox Lodge of Boston, MA. Both lodges were for military veterans, and he enjoyed traveling throughout the Commonwealth, visiting other lodges. He also was a member of the Rhode Island Shriners and many other coordinate masonic organizations.

“ Dave was on our crew during renovations at the Dunkin Donuts Center in Providence back in 2007-08. What a blessing it was to have him on our team. Sometimes the work was tough and the conditions weren't the best, but never a complaint from Dave. A credit to the union, he was a top notch electrician who maintained a positive and professional attitude. I have no doubt that we will meet again. Looking forward to it : )

“ Dave's obituary is a great tribute to an incredible human being. Though it highlighted many of the memorable milestones of his well lived life it did miss a couple of important points I am aware of and need to be mentioned. He was ALWAYS available to help anyone in need and the list of people he helped is very long. Always did it with no fanfare and avoided kudos. The other important facet of his life that wasn't mentioned was his very valued connection to Rhode Island College, it's athletics program and most importantly it student-athletes. Dave was a super fan and would do anything to help the "kids" and followed the college's teams at home and on the road. Though he didn't play for RIC he was a true example of an Anchorman! God speed Dave there is big hole in our athletic program. Don Tencher, Director of Athletics, Rhode Island College
