

Deborah Cookson

October 30, 1950 - November 30, 2018

Deborah Cookson went to sleep in Jesus peacefully surrounded by her loving family.

She leaves behind Donna Cookson, June Van Der Meere (Frank), David Cookson, Glenn Cookson of Johnston, Stephen Cookson (Toni) of Connecticut.

In addition to her family, she leaves behind many close relatives and friends. Deborah graduated from Atlantic Union College and worked as a school teacher for many years retiring in 2014.

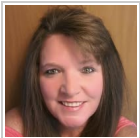

Memorial service will be announced at a later date.

Tribute Wall

LR

“ I knew Debbie since her time as a teacher at the Maranatha School at Willimantic SDA Church school... she was always a blessing to us all. Later to see her at the Johnston RI SDA Church and our reconnect on Facebook! She will truly be missed as I enjoyed our continued conversations and friendship....SIP my dear Sister in Christ! There will be JOY in the morning 🙏❤️

Liz Rose-Cantara - May 18, 2019 at 10:12 AM

“ Debbie you will be so missed. Your sweet smile and so caring. Never did you meet a stranger. We love you. Rest in peace until we meet again. Jimmy and Stacy...and benjamin

Stacy Frotten - February 18, 2019 at 12:02 AM

KG

“ Ms. Cookson was my first and second grade teacher and my favorite teacher of all times. She had to be fresh out of college when she started at Uniontown S.D A. school. Her kindness, patience, loving spirit stayed with me all the time. She even figured out that my vision was compromised in the first grade and told my my to get me to the eye doctor. How many teachers care that much? She will be truly missed and I'm so glad that we reconnected. Soon and very soon we shall meet again. Rest In Peace Ms. Cookson

Karen Guyton - December 09, 2018 at 10:12 AM

JM

“ *Debbie,
I miss you so much. I still can't believe you are gone. You were such a dear sweet sister.
You will always be in my heart. We will be together again when Jesus comes to the us all home.*

June Van Der Meere - December 07, 2018 at 02:55 PM

SS

June and family, Debbie was a very good friend. She came to Uniontown SDA School and taught under my then husband, John Cuva, who has also since passed away. Debbie was a kind and gentle person; very trusting and loved everybody. She and I had some good times together while she was in Ohio. Occasionally she'd call but I hadn't heard from her in several years. I am so sorry she has passed away. Please accept my sincerest condolences and rest assured you will see her again when Jesus comes. Blessings-- Susan Swayze (Cuva)

Susan Swayze - December 09, 2018 at 09:19 PM