“ As a much younger cousin, I was the flower girl in Del’s wedding when I was approximately five years old. My mother babysat for David at our house. My mother loved Del and David very much. The attached picture is of my mother and I ready to attend the wedding.

I reconnected with Dell at Wayne’s funeral not so long ago. Having lost my brother we made connection. I know she will live on in the memory of many, including myself.

I miss her excruciatingly. We used to talk by phone once a week for at least an hour. I considered her my best friend.
