“ Played a lot of golf in Denbos’ company. On one hot summer day we were in the latter holes at briggs and we were burned out and were. No longer scoring well. At that late point Dennis went rummaging in his golf bag and came up with Milkyways for everybody.

It was a small thing but we all were rejuvenated and got our edge back. It was a small gift but it was a sample of his considerate nature that he was prepared to take care of all his friends as well as himself.

Mwhen drinking beer with Denny he would put on his Irish accent and have us in stitches.

Sincere sympathy to Poopie and his sister; he will be missed .

“ What a beautiful tribute! Uncle Dennis will always hold a special place in my heart. I fondly remember all the holiday dinners we had together. He had a special bond with Sean and would always entertain him with his Donald Duck voice. I also randomly remember him not liking "purple" food. 😊
Rest in Peace Uncle Dennis.
