

Dolores J. Rinaldi

October 16, 2023

Dolores J. (Esposito) Rinaldi, 70, amateur astronomer and empath, passed away peacefully in the arms of her husband Kenneth F. Rinaldi, Sr. Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Robert J. Esposito, Sr. and Dolores Espinoza. She met her husband Kenneth F. Rinaldi, Sr. 50 years ago. When they married in 1983, she became the proud mother of Kenny's children. Dolores was an attentive, thoughtful, and loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and dog mom. She leaves behind two children, Kenneth F. Rinaldi, Jr. and his wife Barbara of Cranston. Gina Nicholson, and her husband John of Scituate. She loved her 6 grandchildren Colin, Jonathan, Caitlyn, Evan, Emily and Brian. She is survived by her siblings Master Sgt. Steven USAF, retired, Karen, Susan, Maria, Jeffrey, and Lisa Esposito. She is preceded in death by her brother Robert J. Esposito, Jr. She is also survived by her nephew Robert J. Esposito III, her niece Lilia Murphy (Tim) and her nephew Frederick Saunders along with her great nephews and niece, Jaden, Leah, Logan, Atticus, and Bowie. She also leaves behind her brother in laws, Dennis Rinaldi (Jeanne) of Johnston, David Rinaldi (Cheryl) of Johnston, Daniel and Kevin Rinaldi as well as her nephews and extended family. Dolores loved animals and was an exceptional dog mom. She leaves behind her beloved dachshunds Cosmo and Angelo. Her deceased pets Rudy and Rocco have met her at the rainbow bridge. Dolores had a wicked sense of humor and was quite a prankster. She loved to laugh and made everyone around her laugh. She was highly spiritual and intuitive. Dolores will be sorely missed. Visitation will be held Monday October 23rd from 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. at the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, Scituate followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 12:00 p.m. at St. Joseph Church, Danielson Pike, Scituate, Burial will be in St. Ann Cemetery, Cranston. The family welcomes donations to the ASPCA as an expression of sympathy instead of flowers.
