“ Dear Sarah, Jesse & family,

So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. Although we lost touch for many years we loved Donald and considered him and your mama dear friends. We have loving and lasting memories of hanging out together in our younger days. We spent lots of time and shared many fun times together. We took Deb & Don to their first ever baseball game at Fenway and your parents instantly fell in love with Louis Tyant, pitcher. They sat our first apartment and puppy, Ginger, when we honeymooned Hawaii, dropped off and picked us up at the Boston airport. We stood up for them at their wedding and we birthed and raised our babies together. Spent many weekends at the gem lots camping, cooking, and laughing.

We loved them both and now they are together once again. Sadly missed until next we meet.

Let your happiest memories sustain you through this difficult time.
We love you.

Forever yours,
Uncle Tom and Auntie Mel Hebert

Sarah, we haven't met but your dad was my dad's roommate at Cra-Mar. I would talk to him every time I went to see my dad. I am very saddened to hear of his passing. Judy Boyle is my friend who would see you and your dad. Sending you heartfelt condolences to you and your family. We all can't forget those beautiful blue eyes
