“ I'm so blessed to have had Donna not only as my cousin but as a friend. When we met recently for lunch it was wonderful to hear her laugh and for a brief time forget about the cancer that had ravaged her little body. She was the epitome of grace and courage as she fought a good fight against cancer until the end. I will miss her dearly but I'm so happy that she no longer knows pain and is once again laughing with Doug and knowing a peace and happiness that we can't begin to comprehend. Rest In Peace sweet cousin
