Boss,

You were always there when I needed help. As a teenager, when I asked for a ride home from my job at Dunkin Donuts because it was snowing, you hopped in your car without hesitation. As an adult, when I had a bat flying around my house at 3 am, you came right over and saved the day. This was your nature. You were always there for anyone, anytime.

We can't believe you're gone. You were supposed to outlive us all. The age of 81 had nothing on you. No one exemplified the phrase "Age is just a number" more than you. It was just a few years ago when you were lifting my dryer onto a pick-up truck as we all stood there wide-eyed.

Who's going to be the only one on time for family gatherings now, my cue to get a move on the party preparations? Who's going to be that calm presence on the holidays when everyone else is unhinged? Who's going to call me Clyde? Not sure why you gave me this nickname, but it grew on me and I'll miss it.

You were a rock for our family and yours. I know you are so proud of all of us.

*Give Mom a hug for us.
I love you and miss you.

Boss,

You will forever be remembered as one of the most selfless caring people I knew. You were always there for everyone! If I or anyone needed anything you were there in an instant.

I am blessed to have so many wonderful memories of you. I love you and know you will look over all of us from above.

*I love you!
