“ I have wonderful memories with you, especially on the milk truck delivering milk in Scituate, Johnston and Providence from grampa’s dairy farm and stopping at LaValley’s drug store on Hartford Avenue to have a coffee cabinet. I had fun times with you and Aunt Honey. And most recently having great phone conversations reminiscing about the past. Rest In Peace, you are back together with Aunt Honey now.

“ To Uncle Edgar's Family,

I have so many great memories of Uncle Edgar and Aunt Honey! My parents Ronnie and Babe Trahan were friends with them and spent a lot of time as a kid at their home on Central Pike, I will keep these memories close to my heart, May he be at peace.
