Edward (Eddie) Tudino

Entered into eternal life on April 17, 2025

Edward (Eddie) Tudino entered paradise with Jesus on April 17, 2025. He is now breathing easily and fully nourished by God's love.

Eddie is lovingly survived by his wife of 55 years, Margaret (Marge) Tudino, with whom he shared a beautiful love story that began when they were just 16 and 14 years old. Together, they built a life rooted in devotion, family, and faith.

He leaves behind his cherished children: Nicole and her husband Joseph, Edward and his wife Cheryl, and Tina—who shares her father's eye color—and her husband James. Eddie's legacy continues through his beloved grandchildren: Shaelynn (and her husband Michael), Karisa, Jenna, Jacy, and Jacoby, and his great-grandchildren, Mathias and Aurora. His faithful dogs, Ruby Rose and Priya, were also part of his daily joy.

A proud member of the Tudino family, Eddie held a deep bond with his many cousins and delighted in time spent with them. He always beamed with joy when surrounded by loved ones, whether at family gatherings or simply sharing a meal. He was a creative genius whether designing a chair for his grandchild, playing his electric organ, or problem solving an HVAC system.

Eddie had an adventurous spirit and a heart for the open road and sea. He was passionate about motorcycling and boating and was never happier than when cruising on Narragansett Bay, especially when sharing those experiences with his family.

Eddie's life was a testament to love, laughter, and loyalty. He will be dearly missed and forever remembered. A celebration of Eddie's life will be held in the coming weeks.

“ *Marge, Nicole, Tina, Eddie and family,
I'm so sorry I can't be there during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.*

*As a teenage playing softball, I fell face forward into second base.
When I stood up, I realized I had torn open my left knee cap. If my memory is correct, although Eddie appeared to be a little squeamish, he wrapped my knee and drove me home. I needed stitches that day and the scar remained. Every time I notice that scar, I have and will always remember my cousin Eddie.*

Eddie, rest in peace my dear cousin. You will be missed and remain forever in my heart.

Love, Renee
