

Elizabeth "Liz" St. Angelo

April 29, 2024

Elizabeth "Liz" St. Angelo, 76, passed away unexpectedly April 29th, at Rhode Island Hospital surrounded by her family. Born and raised in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, she was the daughter of the late John and Marjorie Boylan (Savidge). She was the loving wife to the late Robert R. St. Angelo; and loving devoted mother to her three children Robert J. St. Angelo and his wife Jean, Peter R. St. Angelo, and Amy E. St. Angelo; and "Blamma" to her grandsons, Michael, and John who she cherished. She is survived by her brother, John Boylan and his wife Rebecca, her sister Nancy Thomas and her husband Dave, and her sister Deborah Boylan who she loved living with, in Foster, RI. She also leaves behind her beloved cat, Prince Harry.

Liz was full of energy, and you would often find her working on a project in the house or in the yard. She spent many years working in dental offices in Greenville, where she became that friendly and familiar face to so many. Liz loved unconditionally and was loved by everyone in return. She was always there for anyone that needed her. She was easy to talk to and never made you feel uncomfortable. She had an easy laugh, great sense of humor and chic style. She was one of a kind.

Liz was proud of her family and the reproduction post & beam home she built with her husband of 55 yrs. in Scituate. After moving to Foster with her sister, she was helping to raise chickens and was most fond of her Polish crested chicken, Esmeralda.

Funeral Services and Burial in Swan Point Cemetery are respectfully private.

“ She was my very dear friend. We worked together closely for several years, and we used to joke and say how I was a younger version of her. I am so grateful for having the chance to know and love her. When we would get together, we would just talk for hours, about everything and nothing, I will miss those talks. I will miss you, my friend. Rest in peace ❤️ Shannon

“ She was the sweetest and the funniest person. Always smiling, laughter, so full of life. She welcomed me with open arms the first time I met her. I feel fortunate to have known her. You will always be in our heart Liz. We love you.
