

Ethel A. Roach

September 5, 2023

Ethel A. (Kapp) Roach of Attleboro, Massachusetts passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Tuesday morning, September 5, 2023, at the age of 93. She was the beloved wife of the late Walter M. Roach.

Born in Providence, RI, she was the daughter of the late Michael and Effie (Richards) Kapp. She was the youngest sister of the late Edward Kapp, Michael Kapp, Loretta Poole, Marian Rondeau, Helen Polacek, and Ruth Mowry.

She is survived by her daughter, Sandra Davis of Warwick, RI, Jeffrey Roach and his wife, Kathy of Attleboro, MA, Kenneth Roach and his wife Kathy of St. Cloud, FL and Stephen Roach and his wife Jeanne of Palm Coast, FL. She leaves behind several nieces and nephews and her many grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren that loved her dearly and cherished all the moments they had with her.

After she stayed at home raising her children, she worked for the post office in Exeter, RI, and then maintained a house cleaning business until her full retirement in her 70's. She loved hosting her family and friends for gatherings at her home on holidays and birthdays. She enjoyed baking, bowling, square dancing, ceramics, and country line dancing. Taking care of her family was her greatest joy. Her favorite shows were The Golden Girls and Wheel of Fortune.

Services have been entrusted with Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate, RI. Her funeral will be held on Thursday, September 21, 2023, with visitation from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11:00 a.m. at St. Joseph Church, 144 Danielson Pike, Scituate, RI. Burial will follow at St. Ann Cemetery, Cranston, RI.

“ My great grandma, the greatest woman. She was always the light of the party. So many memories to go through; I will always remember sleep overs with her and bepa when I was little. I will forever miss you. RIP Mema
