

Evelyn May Taylor

November 28, 2019

Evelyn May (Gustafson) Taylor, 93 of Shore Acres, North Kingstown passed away peacefully in her home Thanksgiving Evening November 28, 2019. She was the widow of Ralph Harold Taylor. Born in Providence, Rhode Island on April 1, 1926 and raised in Cranston, Evelyn "Eve" was the daughter of the late Gunnar and Pearl (Matteson) Gustafson. Evelyn adored her home on Shore Acres and loved to see her children enjoy cookouts, clam boils, air shows, holidays or simple get-together's and welcomed visitors at any time. During warm weather, Evelyn kept her perch on the back porch while glancing over Narragansett Bay watching the boats go by, reading the daily newspaper, and doing either her crossword puzzles or Sudoku. When the weather was cold, Evelyn moved to her kitchen table where she could remain gazing at the "diamonds dancing off the bay" when the sun was bright, enjoying her jigsaw puzzles - welcoming anyone to find "that one piece" she could not find. Evelyn adored her six grandchildren, never missing a birthday or Christmas. She is survived by her son David and his wife Betty and six grandchildren: Jennifer Taylor Vaudrain (Woonsocket, Rhode Island), Michael Taylor (North Kingstown, Rhode Island), Danny Taylor (Chicopee, Massachusetts), Elisa Taylor Farmer (Sylva, North Carolina), Mathew Taylor (Huntersville, North Carolina) and Linneah Taylor (Sylva, North Carolina). Evelyn was predeceased by her husband Ralph, sons Kenny (Cindy) and Paul, brothers Stanley, Raymond and Arnie Gustafson, and her sisters Bea Cataldi, Norma Smith, Shirley Danella and Beverly Pezzullo.

She was known as “Aunt Ev” to her many many nieces and nephews. Our thanks to her many caregivers, Hope Hospice and North Kingstown EMS.

A Celebration of Life will be coordinated at a later date.
