

Frank W. Lomastro

January 17, 2016

Lomastro, Frank W., Sr. passed away peacefully at Cra-Mar Meadows Nursing Home in Cranston on Sunday, January 17, 2016. He is survived by his wife of 68 years, Christine (Stravato) Lomastro. Besides his wife, he leaves behind two sons, Frank W. and John E. Lomastro both of Scituate, and a daughter, Jane E. Dorego of Lincoln as well as eleven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. He is the father of the late Karen Celani and brother of the late Arthur Whitten and Albert Whitten. Before retiring in the mid 1980s, Frank ran his poultry farm with his family and was also parts manager at the former Congdon Equipment in Johnston for over 40 years. He is an army veteran of WWII and was part of the Battle of Normandy and had also served under General George Patton. Burial with Full Military Honors will be held Friday, January 22 at 9:00 a.m. in the Columbarium Committal Center in the Rhode Island Veteran™s Memorial Cemetery, Rt. 2, Exeter, if you plan to attend the burial please meet the processional by 8:55 a.m. on the main road in front of the administrative building parking lot when you first pull in the Cemetery off Rt. 2. A Memorial Service will follow the burial at 11:00 a.m. in The Winfield & Son™s Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Avenue, North Scituate. Friends and Family may call Thursday evening from 4-7:00 p.m. in the Funeral Home.