

Gladys Quigley

October 27, 2021

Quigley, Gladys, 94, passed away on October 27th at Riverview Healthcare Community. She was the daughter of Lilia & Thomas Quigley. She was the sister of the late Marion Harrington Petrucci, Edwin Harrington, Byron Harrington and Louis Harrington. She was also the aunt of Lila Ritchotte, Sonia Welch, Jean DeLuca, Byron Harrington, Valarie Harrington and the late Jeaneane Grover as well as great aunt to many. Gladys was an elevator operator for the Rhode Island Hospital Trust for 32 years. Services and internment at Rockland Cemetery in Clayville, RI will be private. A heartfelt thank you to the doctors and all staff, nurses, CNAs, aides, activity directors, housekeeping and all of the other essential personnel at Riverview Healthcare Community who took care of Gladys in such a professional, compassionate and caring manner especially during the COVID-19 pandemic. No words can express our sincere gratitude to everyone at Riverview. Their support during this most trying time is immeasurable.

“ Thank you to the staff at Riverview Nursing Home for the care and compassion you gave to our aunt and great aunt Gladys Quigley for many years and in her final hours. It is greatly appreciated. She is now at peace and with her mother, where she had wished to be. She would have loved to have seen all the beautiful pumpkins displayed downstairs.
RIP Aunt Gladys, my mom is going to miss you.

“ No words can adequately express my sympathy on the passing of my aunt Gladys. She has been in our lives forever and I will miss her dearly every day. After such a long illness she deserves the peace and rest. She will now be with her mother whom she loved so much and my sister Jeaneane Grover. Rest in peace Aunt Gladys, miss our daily phone calls and laughs about nothing.
