

Gregory Charles Lagueux

November 23, 2024

Gregory C. Lagueux, Sr., (66), passed away on November 23rd, 2024. Born October 13, 1958 in Providence, RI, to Denise Lagueux and the late Honorable Ronald Lagueux. He was the beloved father of Gregory C. Lagueux, Jr., and Jacqueline M. Lagueux and her husband, Michael Browning, and their new son, Tucker Gregory Browning. He is also survived by his siblings: Michelle Lagueux and her husband, Bill Burgess; and Barrett Chapin, his wife, Betsy, and their three sons.

Greg was a former Rhode Island State Trooper for 20 years and spent many of those years as a detective. He was known to many as a fun loving ball buster with an adventurous personality. He had many hobbies including deep sea diving, hiking, fishing, golf, and lacrosse. His passion for lacrosse led him to found the Scituate High School Lacrosse team, where he was able to pass on his love of the sport to the next generation.

Greg had a compassionate heart when it came to any and all animals.

A Funeral Service will be held Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home and Crematory, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate. Calling hours will be held Monday, from 4:00 - 7:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, please honor his memory with a donation to either the

Friends of the Scituate Animal Shelter, PO Box 14, Scituate, RI 02857 or the Scituate High School Booster Club, PO Box 94, Scituate, RI 02857.

“ So many memories of Greg during my formative years in Rumford and at PCD. He was a character from Day 1. We had many laughs and always had fun on the athletic fields. I was fortunate enough to catch up with him in recent years. We shared the love of music, and especially drums. I have a drum kit from him that I sit behind often, and think about him when I play. His energy and spirit will live on with all that knew him. To his family, my sympathies. We lost a good one....

“ Saddened to hear about Greg's passing. I had the privilege of coaching him in lacrosse for three seasons at Providence Country Day. He was a terrific teammate - tough, knowledgeable, and passionate about the game. Proud to know that he passed that spirit on to the players he coached. He will be missed...
