

Helen Ann Lanoue

January 17, 2024

Helen Ann (Pascale) Lanoue, 97, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on January 17, 2024 at Cherry Hill Manor in Johnston.

Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Nicandro and Rosina (Acciaioli) Pascale; wife of the late Henry Lanoue; devoted mother of Janice A. Richards (Anthony), Jacqueline A. Marotta and the late Joan M. Whittle and her late husband Frederick J.; cherished grandmother of Sandi M. Richards, Lisa A. Richards and Kendrick J. (Catherine) Whittle; great-grandmother of Jamison and Adeline Whittle; sister of the late Adeline Demoia, Alfred Pascale and John Pascale. She also leaves extended relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Helen was well liked by all and was very charismatic. She was an excellent Italian cook and baker and enjoyed cooking for her family. When she was not in the kitchen, she loved going down to the beach and soaking up the New England summers along the coast.

Helen had a green thumb and loved her house plants. She filled her basement with beautiful assortments of Poinsettias, Philodendron's, African violets and spider plants.

In her later years, she was very active in the Cranston Senior Center. Above all else, she loved her family and cherished all the time spent with them. She is now with her precious Lord who she devoted her life to.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday, January 27 at 10:00 a.m. in Saint Mary Church, 1525 Cranston Street, Cranston, RI. Burial will be private.
