“ My dearest memory is when Henry drove thru the Blizzard of 78 to bring my diabetic husband orange juice and food. I was out of town with my children and Henry knew my husband was unable to get out. We had many great times together and will miss him. God Bless you “Hank”!

My dear sweet Hank my heart is aching. I will never forget the day I was walking my usual daily walk and you saw someone following me at the Manor. You immediately left the community room and ran to the front parking lot to make sure I was okay. You were a true gentleman and I have carried you in my heart since that day. RIP my beloved Hank.

I want to wish the Mayer family my deepest condolences. I worked with Hank for my 26 at Almacs. He mentored me in my younger years when working with him in the numerous meat departments throughout the chain. He was funny and had strong opinions. He was a friend even though we all went our separate ways when the market finally closed. The best times was when We played hockey at night at Thayer arena. RIP Hank.
