

Herbert N. Germano

September 29, 2025

Herbert N. Germano, 70, of East Providence, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, September 29th surrounded by his loving family.

Born on December 30, 1954, in Providence, Herb was the cherished son of Virginia Travers and Herbert Germano. He grew up in North Providence and built a career as an HVAC engineer, where he was known for his hard work and dedication.

Herb lived life with a big heart and a love for adventure. He had a passion for photography, Harley-Davidson motorcycles and could often be found on the open road, enjoying the freedom of the ride. Family meant everything to him, whether it was sharing laughs at the dinner table, cheering on his grandchildren, or spending quiet moments with his wife Donna, those were the times he treasured most.

He is survived by his devoted wife, Donna; his children, Herbert N. Germano, Christopher J. Germano and his wife Jennifer, Dylan J. Germano and his husband William Ross Heideman-Germano, and Leroy C. Blood and his wife Sharon; as well as his grandchildren, Tyler Germano, Abigail Martinez, Maya Germano-Portella, Trevor Germano, Zen Germano, Bianca Blood, and Zeke Germano. He also leaves behind one great-grandchild, Davina Martinez, extended family and friends, nieces and nephews, all of whom adored and cherished him.

Herb was preceded in death by his parents, Virginia Travers and Herbert Germano; his sister, Virginia Scullian; and his brother, Joseph “Sunny” Rebello.

A celebration of Herb’s life will be held at a later date, where family and friends will gather to share stories, laughter, and love in his memory.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of working with Herbie since the late 80s. Always upbeat, always pleasant. Since moving to NY, I had the pleasure of getting together with Herbie outside of work. I will always remember being a guest at his home. We also had a few get togethers with dear friends Wayne and Dan. I'm going to miss you Herbie.
