

James Allen Brown

December 27, 2025

James Allen Brown, 82, of North Providence passed peacefully on Saturday, December 27, 2025, surrounded by the love that defined his life. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Joseph and Lena. He is survived by his sister Joyce and preceded in death by his brothers, Jackie, David, and Arthur. He was a devoted father to his seven children: Eugene, William, Robert, Michael, Joseph and Lisa, and he carried Katrina in his heart always.

A dedicated and hardworking man, he spent 20 years at Collyer Insulated Wire before continuing his career for another 10 years at St. Joseph Hospital, where he eventually retired. His work ethic and integrity were evident in everything he did.

Beyond his career, he was an accomplished woodworker and craftsman, creating with both skill and patience. He was also an inventor, holding several patents – a testament to his creativity, curiosity, and determination.

Above all else, he loved his family deeply. He was a proud grandfather and great-grandfather of many, finding his greatest joy in time spent with those he loved. His kindness, ingenuity, and unwavering devotion to family will be remembered and cherished always.
