“ To The Doyle Family,

I was so sorry to learn of your sweet father's passing. He was an absolute gentleman, filled with kindness, compassion and such devotion to God and family. He graciously provided the holy communion to so many, people throughout his life, including providing it to our parents (Jim & Nancy Scotti) and also to my mother-in-law (Jennie Spicola).

I'm certain he took all of your love with him when leaving this world for the next. May he forever rest in peace with the angels and forever look down upon his family.

“ We are so sorry for your loss, visiting at the Nursing home and seeing other devoted family members was always a heartwarming experience . Even though it is so hard to see our dear fathers and grandfathers slow down, we always witnessed Gods love in action with caring family members. May Jim rest in eternal peace, and may you be comforted knowing you provided him great comfort. The Nadeau Family

To the Doyle family. I just found out Jim passed away. It broke my heart . Jim was like a dad to me. when i started working at everett products in 1977, Jim was my boss. He taught me the thermometer trade. He was a genius and more than that the finest person I've had the pleasure to know. He taught me the right way to live. He loved me and Lydia and my children. I used to go see him once a year at his home, and we would go out for lunch. Your mother Mary worked for me at Popper and she was the best to. I would sit in Jims kitchen and talk about the great times we had with Mary. O God how he love her so. Some times he would start crying. Thats how much he loved your Mother. No more tears Jim, your with her now. I lost my wife Lydia 2 yrs ago. I know Jims telling me she's in heaven Russ wating for you . When my time comes I look forward to seeing Lydia Mary and Jim. I think you can see the profound effect your Mom and Dad had on me. To all of you God bless . To my second Dad I love you Jim. Your friend forever. Russ Costa May 7 6:10 pm
