

James Joy

June 24, 2024

James Joy, of Palm Coast, FL and Scituate, RI, passed away on June 24 after a long illness. He is survived by his loving wife of 44 years, Joan (Cote) Joy, his two daughters, Brigitte Joy and Amy Joy Manning and husband Patrick, sisters Patricia Brantner and husband Robert, Eileen Schlaier and husband Raymond “Skip” and his late brother, Michael Joy and his surviving wife Sandra, along with many nieces and nephews (who could always count on him for a dollar whenever they saw him growing up).

After a successful career, Jim was able to enjoy many years of sunshine in Florida. He loved fishing on his boat, playing pool in his weekly league and seeing live music. An avid history buff, he always enjoyed looking into the history of his next travel destination. Most importantly, he loved spending time with his family and his beloved pets.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date in his home state of New Jersey. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Meeting Street (meetingstreet.org), an organization that he believed deeply in and was actively involved with prior to retirement.

Tribute Wall

LN

“ I was so sorry to hear that Jim passed. We lost touch after he retired. I always admired him for his straightforward approach. I could count on him to challenge me and also to support me. He will be missed.

Linda Newton - April 11, 2025 at 05:25 PM

RH

“ Our sincere condolences go out to you Joanie and your family. You will be remembered in our prayers.

Ron and Claudia Hamaty - July 02, 2024 at 04:20 PM

MR

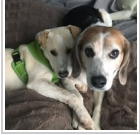

“ My sympathies to Joan, Brigitte, and Amy.

Jim and I first worked together and then became friends for the past 25 years. We had some great conversations over the years and took several trips to Las Vegas. Jim was a very smart man and was an avid reader. He was a history buff, especially interested in the Civil War. We had serious discussions but also shared laughs.

Jim told me how he loved his wife Joan and thought the world of her. He spoke frequently of his two daughters and how happy he was to have them in his life.

I have many fond memories of Jim and will miss his friendship. May he rest in peace.

Michael Recorvits - June 28, 2024 at 10:32 PM

“ My sincere condolences go out to Joan, Brigitte, Amy and Pookie for the loss of this amazing man (husband, father) who I had the opportunity to meet just a couple of years ago. What a kind person who loved to read up on and share news articles with me about how companies are doing and who was very interesting to talk to. It is unfortunate that he had to suffer these last 7 months going in and out of hospitals, nursing home, etc., but now he is in peace with no more suffering. I hope you find the strength to continue your lives the way Jim/your dad would have wanted you to do. I am here if you need anything - just a text/phone call away. Love, Dale Champagne

Dale Champagne - June 27, 2024 at 03:27 PM