

Joan Boulanger

October 24, 2023

Joan was born September 13, 1939, in Northbridge Massachusetts. The earlier part of her life was spent raising her children. When they were grown, she went back to school to become a nurse. Joan spent most of her career working with young teenage mothers to provide care and counseling for both mother and child from conception to birth. The last six years of her nursing career was spent in substance abuse remediation which she loved.

Joan was predeceased by her husband James Boulanger and brother Roy Lapan. She is survived by her younger sister Judy Ferrar, first husband Joseph A. Cinco, and five children, Joseph R. Cinco, Linda J. Cinco, Anthony L. Cinco, Christopher R. Cinco, foster son Gene Matthew's, and life long dearest friend, Joan Amaral.

A Memorial Service will be held Saturday December 2nd at 11:00 a.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service starting at 10:00 a.m.

Special thanks to my sister in law, Donna Cinco, RN and the staff at Bayberry Commons nursing home for the amazing care and attention to our mother's needs during this difficult time.
