

John Cebik

November 24, 2024

John Cebik, age 59, was met on Sunday, November 24, 2024, by his two favorite dogs, Goober and Missy as they escorted him over the Rainbow Bridge to be greeted by his Mom (Mary Cebik) and all those that have passed on before him.

John grew up in the Pine Barrens of Central New Jersey where he attended Pemberton Township High School and Richard Stockton State College where he studied Marine Biology. He put himself through college managing restaurants in Atlantic City, NJ before spending time in Arkansas where he started working for MetLife. When the office there closed, he moved to Rhode Island where he met his husband, Rich. He bought his boat and enjoyed fishing on Narragansett Bay during the summers and bowling with the GALA League during the winters.

John is survived by his husband of 20 years, Richard Vogel; Kathleen Cebik (sister); Susan P. & Joseph Scully (sister & brother-in-law); Patricia Cebik (sister); Caroline Cebik (sister); Christopher Scully (nephew); and Elizabeth Preziosa (niece).

In place of services, there will have a "Celebration of Life" for John next summer (details to be communicated at a later date).

“ John was a part of my childhood, growing up in the pines. He was always the sweetest, kindest boy. I'm very sad to see this. All these years later, I think of him fondly. Praying for his loved ones.
