Jonathan Michael Hey 34, passed away unexpectedly on February 6, 2017. Jonathan was the beloved husband of Alicia Marie (Sherblum) Hey, loving father to sons Bryce Edward and Blake Andrew Hey all of Scituate. He leaves his parents, Daniel & Caryn (Matthews) Hey, brothers Joshua David & Jeremy Daniel Hey all of Foster. His paternal grandparents, Harold & Frances Hey of Foster. His maternal grandparents were the late John & Carol Matthews of Coventry. He also leaves many aunts, uncles and cousins. Jonathan grew up in Foster and attended Ponagansett High School where he found a love for hockey. Not only did he enjoy hockey, but he found that he had the skills to play goalie. He helped his team win the Met B championship in his senior year. I can still hear his best friend Mike yelling in the stands, encouraging him. Jonathan was an avid hunter and fisherman. In recent years he found the joy of kayak bass fishing and with his buddy entered a national contest and placed 2nd. Jonathan enjoyed fishing with his friends and brothers. He fished as often as he could and was enjoying teaching Bryce how to fish. They often could be seen at Green Acres casting lines in the water. Jonathan went to, New England Tech after Stanley Bostitch closed and became an electrician. Where not only did he learn the tools for a trade, but again made good friends there, as he had at Bostitch. Jonathan was a loyal man, who made and kept loyal friends. The shining part of his life was his family. He pursued Alicia, and was so happy to be with her. The addition of his two beautiful sons completed their family. He was a family man and loved
