

Joseph N. DeMarco

November 16, 2024

Joseph N. DeMarco, 87, of Cumberland, passed away November 16, 2024. He was the husband of the late Olinda (Monteiro) DeMarco. Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Nicholas and Carmela (Pacia) DeMarco.

Joseph was a dedicated master carpenter, his craftsmanship and skills were evident in every project he undertook, leaving a lasting legacy in both private homes and public spaces.

He proudly served in the Army National Guard where he applied his strong work ethic and dedication to every task and mission. His commitment to service was deeply appreciated by his peers and superiors alike.

He graduated from Hope High School, and carried the lessons learned there throughout his entire life. Joseph was a man of many interests, including meticulously caring for his yard, fixing things in his home, watching sports, and savoring Italian cuisine, which brought him much joy and contentment. He is survived by his daughter, Cheryl DeMarco; grandson, Derek Silva; granddaughter, Tara Borino; great-granddaughters, Isla and Mila; and great-grandson, Rome. He was the father of the late Natalie Montanaro and grandfather of the late Emily Doles. Joseph's memory will be cherished and kept alive through the stories shared by his family and all those who knew him.

A Funeral Service will be held Friday, November 22nd at 10:00 a.m. in the Redwood Chapel at Swan Point Cemetery. Entombment to follow.

“ Wishing the Demarco family comfort and peace during this most difficult time. I had the pleasure of getting to know Joe when he lived at Brightview Commons. He put a smile on my face every single day and left an indelible mark on my heart. His humor, love of music, and gentle nature will forever be missed. I am so grateful I got to know him and will always cherish my memories of him.

“ Mr. DeMarco was a lovely man who was easy to love and admire. The team at Brightview Commons became a second family to him. Following the passing of his daughter Natalie, we were grateful he could be closer to his other daughter and family members. We are deeply grateful to have known Joe and shared so many fond and fun memories with him and his family. We are comforted to know he is reunited with his beloved wife and daughter.
We extend Peace to his surviving family.
