“ You were my rock, my go to, my everything... you are everything I am today and my only goal in life was to make you proud of me.. Hopefully i came close.. I know ill never be the man you where but then again nobody could even come close lol. The mold was broken when Jesus made you! My only comfort is that you are not In pain anymore and you have grandma up stairs and Charlie waiting at the gates for you.. I know you'll be on my shoulder for the rest if my time here.. I love you dad and I will do my best to make sure mom and Larry are OK 🙏🙏💔💔 semper fi!!

“ Dear Marilyn and family, we are so sorry for your loss. I still tell stories of the all night fishing trips in the rain with Joe, Ronnie and myself. The best story was the night he caught a 15 pound blue fish at the Coast Guard House with a Rag-a-mop. I had just finished telling him that he wouldn't catch anything with that lure and all of a sudden there was the blue fish. He teased me about it every time he saw me. I will miss him.
