

Joyce Brubaker Bryan

December 24, 2022

Joyce Brubaker Bryan, 83, died at R.I Hospital on December 24th with her loving husband David at her side.

An accomplished woman, Joyce received her R.N. at Lancaster Hospital Nursing School and a M.A. in Education from the University of Illinois. After retiring from Kent County Hospital where she was a Labor & Delivery nurse, Joyce and her husband founded R.I. Centerless Inc. in 1989, where she worked until she retired in 2007. A woman of great faith, Joyce was an active congregant of North Scituate Baptist Church where she served wholeheartedly on many committees and sang with their choir and trio.

Predeceased by her parents Lester and Ada Brubaker, her sister Joanne Brubaker May (James Y. May, dec.), son Craig Erickson and daughter Patricia Bryan Sereby, (Keith Sereby, dec.), she is survived by her husband David Bryan, sons Keith Erickson (Claire), Brian Erickson (Pitut), and Martin Bryan (Deborah). She was loved by her grandchildren Lindsey Dowiot (Justin), Mollyanne Bryan, Samuel Bryan (Jessica), Emily and Ella Erickson, and great-grandchildren Mae, Chester, and Mackenzie. She also leaves her brother James Brubaker and his wife Rosemary.

A Memorial Service will be held on January 7th at 10:30 a.m. in the North Scituate Baptist Church, 619 West Greenville Road, North Scituate. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Providence Rescue Mission at www.ProvidenceRescueMission.org.

“ I met Joyce 51 years ago when we shared a driveway. Our families became good friends and shared many meals together. Joyce loved to try a new receipt and shared many with us; some of which my children still ask for when they visit. She also became a second mother to my youngest daughter during the trying teen years. And Joyce's mentoring saved the relationship between my daughter and me. Joyce was a great friend. RIP JOYCE BRIAN.
