

Judith Paula Olivo

April 26, 2022

Judith Paula Olivo, known as "Judy" or "Auntie Judy" to everyone who knew and loved her, left this earth battling Alzheimer's on April 26th, 2022, at St. Antoine's Residence in North Smithfield RI.

Judy was 78 years old and was with her loved ones on the day of her passing.

A long-time resident of Foster, RI, Judy was born to Nunzio L. Olivo and Louise M. Olivo in Providence, RI and graduated from Saint Mary's Academy of the Visitation in Providence.

After High School, Judy maintained a professional career in sales working for Chase Brass and Copper, R&S Metals, Chase Metals and Scott Brass.

Judy owned a part-time business teaching ceramics to adults and children in her ceramic studio in Foster.

After retirement, Judy volunteered at St. James School for 6 years assisting with Pre-K classes.

Although Judy never married, she enjoyed being with friends and family and had a passion for travel and cruise vacations. She enjoyed sharing those travel experiences with her nephew and nieces who meant more to Judy than words can describe.

Judy is survived by her brothers Lawrence S. Olivo and Mark G. Olivo, her sister-in-law Gayle P. Olivo, her nephew Michael L. Olivo and his husband Anthony J. Olivo, and her nieces Amanda L. Olivo and Courtney A. Olivo. She is preceded by her parents Nunzio L. Olivo and Louise (Mastropieri) Olivo.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday, May 14, 2022 in St. James Church, 12 Franklin Street, Danielson, CT at 10:00 a.m. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Judy's memory may be made to St. James Church, 12 Franklin Street, Danielson, CT 06239 or Alzheimer's Association, <https://act.alz.org>.
