“ I will always remember all the good times that we shared during our rides to Cedar Brook School. And when we used to rush home to see our favorite show on tv. And also the Sabbath afternoons when we all used to meet up in Knowlton's pasture for a walk. You were such a sweet girl, and I will never forget you. Rest in peace knowing that when the Lord comes, we will see you again.

I just found out today that my grad school friend is gone. Although we only met up for lunch once or twice a year, at 85 Main in Putnam, CT (midway for both of us), I will miss knowing she is a text or phone call away. Since my graduation in 1998 Kathy was a loyal friend. I will miss our long lunches when we caught up on our lives, discussed work, and our shared political beliefs. I truly admired her intelligence, humor, and her strong sense of self. I'm so sad, and must admit, angry about losing her 💔
