Kenneth was born July 17, 1966 in New Haven, CT to Kenneth and Helen (Bennett) Marx, Sr. of North Scituate, RI. Kenneth was a graduate of North Scituate High School, North Scituate, RI. As a young boy, he developed a passion for nature and he followed his passion with a career as an arborist. Throughout his life, Kenny sought peace and tranquility especially with nature and animals. You could find Kenny in the woods deer tracking to admire their beauty. He prided himself he could apply his advanced swimming skills to jump in the water and save a child from drowning. When in need of transportation to a destination, he would think nothing to jump on his bike and go. Kenny always gave a firm handshake, the way his father taught him when a young boy, to seal a commitment. He lived by his heart; always open to assist others™ interests. Son, brother, brother-in-law, family, friends, acquaintances, you will remain dear in our hearts. He was the father of Julie Darby. He is the son of the late Kenneth E. Marx, Sr. He is survived by his mother, Helen R. (Bennett) Marx, a grand-daughter, Mariah Godin, two sisters; Deborah R. (Marx) Olijnyk and her husband, Alberto E. Olijnyk and Karen J. (Marx) D™Andrea, three nieces, two nephews, 3 great-nieces and 2 great-nephews. He was the twin brother of the late Kevin E. Marx. A private graveside service was held, prior to burial.
